RE: Your Recent Public Records Act Request Received on January 10, 2019; No. 2019-00083

Dear Mr. Feathers:

This letter is in response to your request submitted and received by the Department of Justice on January 10, 2019, requesting records under the Public Records Act which is contained in Government Code section 6250 et seq. For the reasons set forth below, this office is extending the date for responding to your request to February 5, 2019.

Agencies are permitted to extend the date for responding to a public records request for fourteen days beyond the original ten-day deadline under specified circumstances. (Gov. Code, § 6253, subd. (c).) As your request was received by this office on January 10, 2019, and January 20, 2019, fell on the Sunday of a three-day weekend, the time established for the original response is January 22, 2019. Fourteen days beyond this date is February 5, 2019.

Agencies may invoke the extension for several reasons, which may be summarized as follows:

1. The need to search for and collect records from field offices or other facilities that are separate from the office processing the request.
2. The need to search for, collect, and appropriately examine a voluminous amount of separate and distinct records which are demanded in a single request.
3. The need for consultation, which shall be conducted with all practicable speed, with another agency having a substantial interest in the determination of the request or among two or more components of the agency having substantial subject matter interest therein.

(Gov. Code, § 6253, subd. (c).)

January 23, 2019

In this instance, an extension is needed to coordinate the response with different sections in the Department that have responsibility for the requested records.

Sincerely,
